CIA Director Says Red Rulers Fear Freedom Desires

NEW YORK (AP)—Allen W. Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, says Soviet rulers fear more than anything else the desire of their own people for freedom.

"We can and must exploit," this fear, Dulles added in a speech this week at the closing session of the 23rd annual New York Herald Tribune Forum.

The Forum also presented a discussion of the achievements of the Eisenhower administration by four cabinet members — Oveta Culp Hobby, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare; James P. Mitchell, Secretary of Labor; Herbert Brownell, Attorney General, and George M. Humphrey, Secretary of the Treasury.

Mitchell said that 62 million people are now working in this country, more than ever before in its history. He said unemployment now totals 4.3 per cent of the work force. He compared this to 17.2 per cent in 1939, 5 per cent in 1949 and over 7 per cent in 1950.
